Expanded Secutech Thailand features complete applications for a smart and safe city

Three-day fringe programme addresses topics in fire and safety, hotel, factory and public security

Secutech Thailand is set to open to the trade from 16 – 18 November in Bangkok. To align with the local market demand and trends, the 2017 edition will reveal a complete blueprint of a smart and safe city to an estimated 15,000 trade visitors. More than 150 global brands and companies will feature various updated applications in smart factory, high-rise buildings, hotels, home and retail. These applications will be fully integrated with the latest technologies such as intelligent video, efficient storage solution, access control, IoT Cloud, high-speed and wireless transmission.

Occupying 7,000 sqm of the Bangkok International Trade & Exhibition Centre (BITEC), the show has increased by 133% in size compared to the last edition. Ms Regina Tsai, Deputy General Manager of Messe Frankfurt New Era Business Media shared her view of the expansion: “Thanks to the joint efforts with our partner Worldex G.E.C. Co. Ltd, local authorities and industry counterparts, we have injected many new elements in the show with a focus on smart and safe city, a growing and lucrative sector in the ASEAN market. Judging from the positive industry response, we know we are moving forward on the right track and we are delighted to see the tremendous growth of Secutech Thailand this year.”

Over 150 key industry brands including Bluguard, Brinno, Chawla Fire Protection, CP PLUS, Dahua Technology, Global Fire Solution, Great Empire, Hangzhou Hikvision Digital Technology, Hanwha Techwin, HIP Global, Indigo Distribution, Maxwell Security System, NetPosa, Technologies, Radwin, Seagate Technology, Somfy Thailand, Tyco Security and WizMart. They will display their advanced solutions in six well identified zones, including Smart City, Smart Home, Smart Retail, Z-Wave Pavilion, UL Pavilion and Intelligent Video Gallery.
