About us

Zhejiang Jinghu Medical & Health Products Co., Ltd., is located in Lishui, one of cities with excellent natural and ecological environment in Zhejiang Province. Our company takes high technology as the starting point and creates safety and health articles as its own duty. We own the first-class production environment and production technology. Now, we're having 5 automatic production lines and the daily output is 500000 , main of disposable protective masks and KN95.

Our products have passed the Chinese national standards, which filter efficiency is over 95%. And we also have acquired CE certificate from EU.

We are an enterprise with a mission and a sense of social responsibility. Under the principle of “being a man with conscience and doing things with heat”, we manufacture the civil protective articles according to the medical standard. We use the wholly qualified raw material including melt-blown fabric with BFE 95%~99% and new environmentally friendly non-woven fabric.

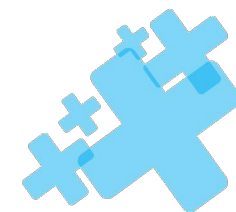

Our strict production standards and modern enterprise management system are the guarantee of your trust.
